Historic:

The Namera of Israeli design is based on a Merkava chassis.

Its name comes from a contraction formed by "NAGmash" and "MERA of MerkavA".

Apparently, it looks like the troop carrier Namer (Model Miniature has released this version, MM-R119), but the difference comes from the whole rear end which is added a crane.

The Namera is a recovery tank with the possibility of being able to transport soldiers as the Namer.
